STIPULATION AND ORDER DISMISSING PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS

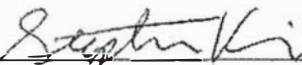

On April 5, 2019, the parties, Joel Crookston (Plaintiff) and Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson (Defendant) (collectively the parties) reached a settlement agreement regarding both the substantive issues raised in this case and attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses. Accordingly, the parties to the above-entitled action, through their respective attorneys and pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41, hereby agree and stipulate to entry of an order dismissing Plaintiff's complaint in its entirety.

This dismissal is with prejudice and without costs or attorneys' fees assessed to any party. The agreement is attached here as Exhibit A.

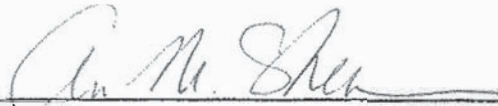

This stipulation and order resolves the last pending claims and closes the case.
